

North Ayrshire
Community Planning Partnership

Three Towns priorities Economy and Tourism Mental Health Community Regeneration In 2018 and 2019 the Three Towns Locality Partnership has . .
67 grant awards made at its meetings	£103 544 in grants awarded to community groups at its meetings	Piloted mainstream Participatory Budgeting
£881 150 additional funding secured by CIF initiatives	£100 000 CIF support for Three Towns Growers Environmental Worker who will offer learning opportunities for local people involved in growing and wider environmental learning and make the Three Towns a centre of environmental excellence.	£50 000 CIF support for the Training Station to promote community regeneration and civic pride through the re-purposing of a category B listed building, developing local community-based facilities that meet community needs and contributing to the community's health and wellbeing.
£25 000 CIF support for Ardrossan Community Development Trust for match funding for a feasibility study to develop a community development trust to capitalise on and progress the work done by a number of local organisations and initiatives to date	Considered inequalities through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Poverty Conference • Fairer food • Employability • Physical regeneration 	Linked with Ardrossan Castle Heritage Society, Three Towns Growers, Friends of Saltcoats Harbour, Saltcoats Harbour Association