

Saturday 10 October 2020 marks the beginning of National Hate Crime Awareness Week 2020. To raise awareness of the impact of hate crime from Monday 19 October the Ayrshire Equality Partnership will be hosting FREE webinars. These webinars will be from a wide range of presenters. Please click on the 'Click here to register' for details of the webinar and to book your place.

Monday 19 October 2020 10.00am-11.00am

Hate Crime in Ayrshire?

The first webinar in this special series will be led by Police Scotland - Ayrshire Division. Chief Superintendent Faroque Hussain will cover key questions, for example, what is a hate crime; what acts are covered by hate crime; and who is covered. Click Here to Register

Tuesday 20 October 2020 10.00am-11.00am

The Experiences of Trans and Gender Diverse Learners and Staff in Colleges and Universities: Moving from Evidence to Action— Dr. Stephanie McKendry

This session will draw upon the findings from research to introduce participants to the main considerations when supporting trans and gender diverse people. Click here to register

Wednesday 21 October 2020 2.00pm-3.00pm

Keep Safe Initiative—Molly Potter/PC Stephanie Rose

In this webinar, Molly and Stephanie will provide an overview of the Keep Safe Initiative and its importance in supporting our communities. Click here to register

Thursday 22 October 2020 4.00pm-5.00pm

Critical Conversations about Racism in Education—Khadija Mohammed

Khadija will explore race and racism and what educators can do to tackle racism in their classroom and institutions. Click here to register

Friday 23 October 2020 10.00am-11.00am

LGBT Hate Crime and Discrimination in Scotland—Stonewall Scotland

The final webinar in this series will cover the prevalence of anti-LGBT hate crime and under-reporting, share LGBT experiences of discrimination in the workplace/when accessing public services and what practical actions can be taken. Click here to register