

Do you want to make a difference to the NHS in your local community?

Why?

The NHS impacts on everyone's lives at one time or another and this could be your chance to get involved in improving, sustaining and protecting the health of the local population.

What's involved?

NHS Ayrshire and Arran is looking for one new member to join its Board. This is a challenging, rewarding and worthwhile opportunity that will take up around 8 hours a week and last for up to 4 years in the first instance. In return, you will be paid £8,930 a year. You will also get reasonable travel and subsistence costs, dependant carer expenses and support to help you carry out your duties.

Can I apply?

We want to hear from people from a range of backgrounds who have a commitment to helping us improve the health and wellbeing of the people living in Ayrshire and Arran and who share the NHS Scotland Values which guide the work of the Board in everything that it does. We are particularly looking for someone with an appreciation of the local community and knowledge or experience of accessing health and social care services that are the responsibility of NHS Ayrshire and Arran.

If this is you, we would like to hear from you.

How do I find out more?

More information on the role can be found at the public appointments website: www.gov.scot/collections/public-appointments or by calling 0300 244 1898.

Completed applications must be received on or before
5.00pm on Wednesday 13th April 2022.
