Kilwinning Locality Partnership

Locality Action Plan 2023/24

About Our Locality

Kilwinning is a busy locality in North Ayrshire. It sits on the River Garnock, just north of Irvine and 21 miles south of Glasgow. There are around 16,100 people who live within its communities.

Kilwinning is steeped in history and has been a centre of the weaving, coal mining and ironworks industries, and in the 20th century became part of Scotland's last New Town.

The estimated population of Kilwinning - This equates to 11.6% of the total population of North Ayrshire.

Why do we have this plan?

Locality planning was introduced in the Community Empowerment (Scotland) Act 2015, under Part 2: Community Planning.

It is one of the ways local communities work together with public and third sector organisations to improve residents' lives and neighbourhoods.

Locality Planning represents a way to bridge the gap between strategic work of the Community Planning Board and the many groups which are working in their communities and to ensure priorities can be identified and actioned, and decisions made, at a manageable and more local level.

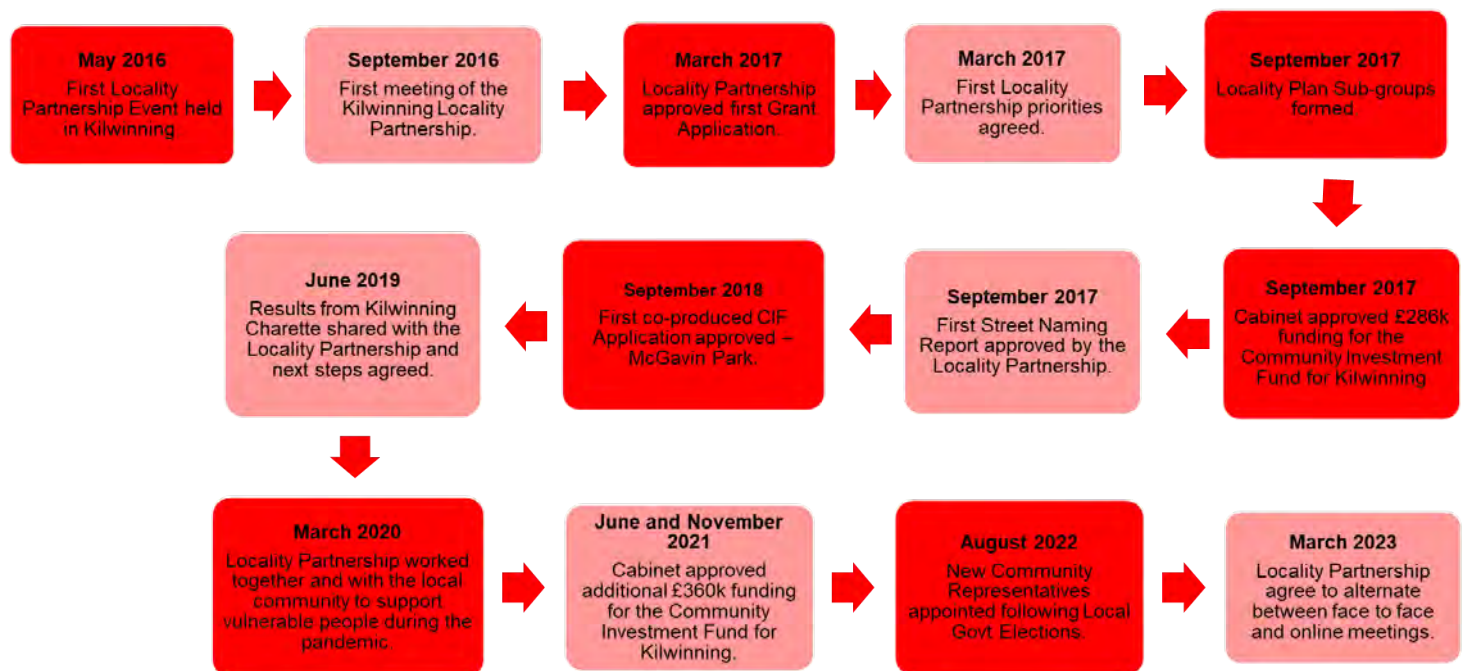

Locality planning was first introduced in North Ayrshire in 2016, with each Locality Partnership's priorities being reviewed in 2021.

In September 2022, updated Terms of Reference and Standing Orders were agreed by Council.

Each Locality Partnership needs to develop a Locality Plan to show how they are going to work together to improve outcomes on their agreed priorities.

Kilwinning Locality Partnership - The Journey

The following information provides a high level summary of the Journey of the Locality Partnership:

Who is involved?

- Elected Members
- Community Council Representatives
- Community Representatives
- Community Planning Partnership Representatives (North Ayrshire Council, HSCP, Police, Fire, Public Health, KA Leisure, Third Sector)

How did we decide our priorities?

Each Locality Partnership has their own local priorities that relate to inequalities and highlight where we feel we can add value. The priorities also link to our North Ayrshire Community Partnership plan – The Local Outcomes Improvement Plan.

Each Locality Partnership agreed their original priorities in 2017 based on data analysis and local engagement. Following the Covid-19 pandemic, a review of the previous priorities was carried out to ensure that they were still relevant to local needs.

In February 2021, a North Ayrshire mainland (including Cumbrae) public engagement was launched, and members of the public were asked to provide their comments around what our priorities should be and what we can do locally to tackle them.

We used different methods to consult with the community such as:

- Online feedback via CONSUL
- Telephone
- Email feedback
- Twitter polls
- Facebook polls
- SurveyMonkey polls
- Virtual working groups
- Online meetings

Our Priorities

Relevant national and local data were presented to the Locality Partnership along with findings from the public engagement and feedback already given through other engagement such as the Peoples Panel and Health and Social Care Partnership Strategic Plan in Autumn 2021 and refreshed priorities were agreed.

Supporting Skills and Work

Improving our Local Environment

Alleviating Poverty and Promoting Equality of Access to Opportunities

Improving Community Wellbeing

We are more than a Plan...

The Locality Partnership Plan and meetings are only a small part of the work which is carried out in each locality to support locality planning and delivery and ensure the voices of local people are heard in an equitable and fair way.

The meetings are a place to agree actions and to make decisions around funding and the ask of partners; they are the tip of a considerable iceberg which includes community chit chat meetings, locality networks and ongoing dialogues with community groups and members regarding their priorities and how they can be supported to work towards these.

Next Steps

Action

The Locality Partnership will work together and with the local community and partners to take forward the actions in this plan.

Update

The action plan will be updated on an annual basis.

Review

The Locality Plan is a living document and will be regularly reviewed to ensure it is relevant and fit for purpose.

Funding Support

The Locality Partnership has considered funding decisions to grant applications to the following funds:

- Town Charitable Trust Funds
- Elderly Grants
- Nurturing Excellence in Communities

The Locality Partnership also consider how they might best address local priorities using the Community Investment Fund.

Since the conception of the Locality Partnerships in North Ayrshire in 2016/17 over £520,000 has been awarded to Community Groups in Kilwinning.

Since 2016/17 the Locality Partnership has awarded over £200,000 of Grant payments community groups in Kilwinning.

Since 2018 the Locality Partnership has awarded over £320,000 of Community Investment Funding to community groups in Kilwinning.

Skills & Work Opportunities

Friends of North Ayrshire Weekly support group for Adults with Additional Support needs. Carrying out a wide range of activities such as: cooking classes, Arts and Crafts, book club, literacy input and much more. The group has 8 registered participants however, also pursuing another referral. The group will be celebrating Christmas with a day out on Wednesday 13th Dec. Here they will be recognised for their amazing participation with a small certificate ceremony.

Digi Need I.T. Support Weekly drop-in support group available in Kilwinning Library. Numbers are low; however, there's 1 regular participant.

Discovery Award Group is going well and have visited a wide range of places including, Riverside Museum, Burns Cottage & Museum, Natural Museum of rural life, People's Palace, and Dean Castle. We now have 10 participants registered. 9/10 participants have secured volunteering opportunities, making positive impact on the community.

New Multiply workers are in place that will be looking at numeracy with over 19s.

Work is taking place with P7s at Corsehill Primary. They are carrying out intergenerational work with Corsehill retirement club, and have had No Knives Better Lives session delivered to them in school. All this will go towards their Dynamic Youth Award.

Local Poet exhibition win Kilwinning Library - Willie is a Kilwinning Community member who has recently joined the Discovery Award Group and Stroll with it. Willie has been sharing with the group his poems that he writes in his spare time. This is a talent Willie realised during lockdown. From January, in partnership with the library, 10 of Willie's poems will be displayed for visitors to enjoy. Working with willie to choose the poems and decide on the display design.

Green health volunteering activities available via groups on the website <https://www.nagreenhealth.org.uk/events/>

Community Wellbeing

Update

Me & My wellbeing group continues to run and is still well attended. Have received another 2 referrals. Staff member will meet them for 1:1 session before they join the group. .

Stroll with it Kilwinning group has heightened in numbers over the last 6 weeks. The group now has 12 participants. The group have created a great bond and retreat for a cup of tea in the library afterwards to continue conversations. The group would naturally stop for the Winter however, 2 of the volunteers have decided to run the group throughout for anyone that wants to attend.

ASN Group continues to run well with both groups now at capacity. Any new referrals will now be put on a waiting list. The work to form a parent's group wasn't successful so we are now looking at the change in transport arrangements from January onwards.

The Variety youth group started on September 5th in Kilwinning Library, during the first four weeks numbers were low with only 6 attending. Promotional posters were sent digitally to all the Primary schools. Visits to Abbey, Blacklands, St Lukes and St Winnings resulted in numbers growing now there are 28 recorded on the register. The impact of the visits and word of mouth shows with new young people joining over the last few weeks. The programme has been adapted and steered in the direction by the young people through activities they have asked for.

As part of our National Youth Work Week programme of celebrations Kilwinning youth groups joined together to have a night of celebration. This took place on 9th of November at Love Hall, with games, food/snacks and appreciation certificates given to all of the young people.

The group started back in September. We now have a core group of families that attend on a weekly basis. We have started revisiting tools we have previously discussed. The families have asked to revisit due to personal circumstances in their own lives. We have also had different partners attending the group. We have Chloe from the multiply project attending and supporting parents with literacy and numeracy needs. We also had Your next move attend. However, this was a challenge as families felt pressure in attending this service. We have looked at this because we realise relationships are key in supporting our families. Take time families is a safe space for many who attend, and we would like to keep it that way. Hence why Chloe is attending to build positive relationships and support. Going forward we hope to continue to support our families and work alongside them to continue to build toolkits to positively support mental health and wellbeing at home. We have 10-14 children and adults attending on a weekly basis.

The team continue to support various community organisations with information/advice/funding availability.

Community Fusion (unity community) started at Nethermain community centre. We welcomed along different people from Syria, Ukraine and Afghanistan. We also had a group of Scottish people that came along to share their culture. The group ran over a 6-week period where we discussed different aspects of culture and compared them with others. It was interesting to both share and learn about culture and it is something we wish to continue. The group took an educational form, and we were sharing history alongside culture and tradition. This veered slightly from our original plan that surrounded bringing people together with food being a focus. We must be mindful the educational model may not work for many people who are not as confident in speaking English. Going forward we are planning to build on this and run a monthly group with a focus around food in a more accessible location. This will hopefully encourage people who may not be as confident in speaking English to attend.

A new Kilwinning Academy Intervention group has been established and is running first period every Thursday morning, 13 young people attend and will take part in various citizenship, confidence building and literacy/numeracy sessions aiming at helping the young people to become active learners.

Update.

Continue to support Eglinton Growers Group with their monthly meetings being held within the library. Support was given to the Open day – providing free glitter tattoos and Games. Team are supporting the groups AGM on Sunday 26th Nov. This is due to constitution change. Will continue to support community events. Health Check has been completed and this will be discussed after AGM this month. Group is in a good position.

Met with swingpark group in September and group decided on the site they would like to progress with. This information has been sent to housing dept and we are awaiting an outcome.

Friday Volunteer group carrying out conservation tasks at Eglinton Country Park. Path Stewardship Group, weekly sessions doing path maintenance at Eglinton. Get Reconnected programme at Eglinton: three sessions with different NAC teams, practical work at the Park.

Kindness Murals- Kilwinning. Meeting with Bee You Ambassadors linking in the time capsule and tree planting project at Kilwinning Community Gardens. Working in partnership with Eglinton Rangers Service, Kilwinning Community Gardens, Climate Change Ambassadors and Bee You Ambassadors.

Poverty & Equalities

Steps forward are taking place in relation to older people's voices being heard through a participation and engagement structure by holding an older peoples conference on November 22nd at Saltcoats Townhall where older people will have the opportunity to feedback on platform presented. The conference will also provide education around scams, intergenerational work, older peoples stories of trying to get their voices heard, lunch, and a raffle and marketing stalls where older people can talk directly to services which are there for their support.

Food with dignity projects are continuing to run. Now coming across issues with funding as the demand is so high. Supports have been put in place to assist with identifying funding, and also looking at how they can reduce their outgoings.

Free youth Activities due to restarted W/B 5th Sept and will finish before Christmas. Will be looking at restarting groups w/b 15 Jan 24.

Library provides free tea and coffee. Free Period products available in the foyer and the toilets. They ran several events for the Scottish Mental Health Arts Festival in October for Adults and Children. Furniture has been rearranged so the public can sit in comfy chairs and have access to electrical sockets. There is also have free Wi-Fi.

Housing have been Identifying and referring to Income Maximisation Services, Debt referrals, Fuel poverty referrals, Welfare Fund assistance.

The second phase of the Basic Cooking Programme, Kilwinning's Best Bites (part of the Systems Change work) has begun in the Corsehill area (previous sessions were hosted in Blacklands) . As part of the System Change programme we are testing different approaches and how communities engage/become involved. This time around we have worked alongside the local primary school to refer families in to the programme, at the moment we have an average of 5 families attending regularly and 7 families in total engaged. Two community members are also working with the System Change group to deliver these sessions, the aim of the sessions as well as to provide basic cooking skills is to help reduce stigma around Food Larders. "Come and Try vouchers" purchased by Corra from the local Food Larder will be provided to all families attending the cooking group. All recipes shown at the group will all be from ingredients available at the Larder.

Update from Kilwinning Community Events

Kilwinning Community Events started works in McGavin Park just over 3 years ago with a strategy to get more people using the park.

With the new play equipment, outdoor gym, goal posts and simple things like just opening the toilets over the summer months, what a difference we've seen in visitors.

More benches and bins were therefore required to accommodate the number of visitors. The last part of the works is nearing completion with the crazy golf being refurbished and hopefully in full use come in next year.

The fireworks went ahead despite the showers and with lower attendance figures we avoided any traffic issues or complaints traffic related on the night. KCE is extremely grateful to all who supported the event with donations or just being there.

We will finish off the year with the Kilwinning Remembrance tree being installed for December so individuals can leave a message or just pass a moment reflecting.

Our panto event kept it local on Saturday 2nd December with thanks to Blacklands Community Association for their support.

From the very small committee ay KCE we extend our very best wishes to all for the festive season.

QUARTERLY UPDATE

NOVEMBER 2023 - DONNA ANDERSON, ANNE-MARIE HUNTER & DENISE FRASER

Kilwinning LP Pg 27

An Introduction to the CLD Strategic Themes

This quarterly report focusses on the CLD strategic priorities outlined in our North Ayrshire CLD Strategic Plan that ties into North Ayrshire locality priorities.

The full plan can be viewed here: <https://www.north-ayrshire.gov.uk/Documents/CorporateServices/ChiefExecutive/CommunityPlanning/community-learning-development-plan.pdf>

YOUTH WORK

Contact: youthwork@north-ayrshire.gov.uk

Youth Work is an educational practice contributing to young people's learning and development. Youth work engages with young people within their communities; it acknowledges the wider networks of peers, community and culture; it supports the young person to realise their potential and to address life's challenges critically and creatively and it takes account of all strands of diversity.

ADULT LEARNING

Contact: adultlearning@north-ayrshire.gov.uk

Community based adult learning covers a wide variety of learning opportunities which target learners who have multiple barriers to opportunity, focusing on disadvantaged individuals and communities. Using a Social Practice Model, learning is built around the experience and needs of the learners and is underpinned by the three core principles of the Adult Learning Statement of Ambition - Learning is Lifelong, Life-wide and Learner-centred.

CAPACITY BUILDING

Contact: denisefraser@north-ayrshire.gov.uk

Community Capacity Building is the support that community groups access to help them address issues which are important to them. 'Capacity' describes the range of resources that people have – knowledge about their area or common interest, skills and ideas, shared experiences, and material resources like funding and community spaces.

Joint Cabinet

During National Youth Work week the latest Youth Cabinet meeting at Saltcoats Town Hall was a hero highlight. With a bustling atmosphere, the youth participation event provided an opportunity for young people to share their thoughts and concerns with the Council Executive and other local policy makers. Representing all of North Ayrshire's secondary schools with over 100 young people attended.

During the round-table discussions, the format included a combination of listening to the experience of young people directly and encouraging the young people to also share feedback using a QR code via the Council's Youth Participation digital platform where all of the information gathered from the day will be collated and reviewed.

The discussions centred around, Youth Peoples Voice and Democracy, Crime and Personal Safety, Financial Literacies and Education, Mental Health and Wellbeing and secondary school life in North Ayrshire.

Theme 1 – Young Peoples Voice – Democracy Matters

North Ayrshire Council is in phase two of a national consultation called Democracy Matters, there has been a variety of workshops, events and engagements to speak to communities about this. To ensure we are engaging with young people we have engaged with our Joint Youth Forum and asked young people at Joint Cabinet some key questions which will form the feedback we give back as a council as a whole.

The engagement is building on the first phase of conversations where communities said they want more control over decisions that impact them the most. This phase is asking communities to get together to consider a series of open questions to help us understand what this control could look like in practice.

Theme 2 – Youth Crime and Personal Safety

As a key theme that young people came back and wanted to discuss during our pre-engagement consultation we are working in partnership with Police Scotland. These are areas which both young people and our partners have raised as areas of concern. Feedback from this will create actions when working with Police Scotland to make young people feel safer in their communities.

Theme 3 – Your School (NIF)

We are working in partnership with Education Scotland as one of two local authorities in Scotland to engage with young people on the Education National Improvement Framework.

Essentially the aim is to find out if the National Discussion responses remain valid under the three questions, or perhaps young people are noting different challenges or certain challenges are more pressing at this time than when the National Discussion was undertaken in 2022. We want to capture any difference / shifts in the young peoples views and experiences.

We were interested to hear their current views on their education and if they reflect the findings of National Discussion findings or perhaps highlight new or different concerns and challenges.

Theme 4 – Financial Literacies and Education

Another key area that young people wanted to discuss was around financial education. We are gathering the views of young people to help us shape workshops and information, this will help shape our work around cyber information for young people and directing them to trusted sources to learn more about financial education.

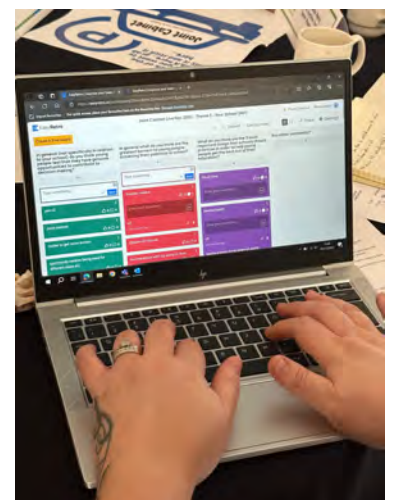

Theme 5 – Health and Wellbeing

Working in partnership with Education, NHS and Ayrshire Alcohol and Drugs partnership we are gathering information on health concerns relating to alcohol and drug education and mental health and wellbeing. This data will help shape support for young people across our communities and schools.

Priority Auction - Cost Of Living

The last bit of the session allowed for a bit of friendly school competition. The Modern Apprentices led on an interactive activity about the Impact of Youth Work and what is important to young people. With it being National Youth Work week, we wanted to know what young people want, what is important to them to help us shape our programmes and activities around their needs and wants. Young people were given 10 themes around this to rank in order from most to least important.

Full report to follow in next quarterly update.

Members of Scottish Youth Parliament

From August up until now the team have been working with eight candidates that are standing to become North Ayrshire next Members of Scottish Youth Parliament for a 2 year term.

National Youth Work seen the launch of the voting phase across Scotland and across our schools and communities using the Young Scot Voting platform. Unfortunately, it had come to light that votes cast using mobile phones had not been recorded by the voting.young.scot website, while votes cast using a desktop computer or a laptop were unaffected.

To ensure fairness and integrity in the voting process, with guidance from Scottish Youth Parliament and Young Scot, North Ayrshire Council, along with other local authorities and National Voluntary Organisations across Scotland has taken the decision to pause the voting and restart the process with fresh ballots. This is to ensure that every young person's democratic vote counts.

The eight candidates will form a newly appointed North Ayrshire Executive Committee and will join other youth voice groups as a group in their own right. This group will be supported by the Election Coordinator and go through a variety of training, support and group work to prepare them for elections and to input into the youth participation and citizenship structures that are already in place, for those not elected in they can continue in this role after the elections if they wish.

Elections will restart from afresh in January 2024 with a full paper ballot across North Ayrshire with MSYPs being officially elected in on Monday 29th January 2024.

Youth Participatory Budgeting

This year we have a dedicated budget for Youth PB of £50,000 – this included a £10k contribution from the Health and Social Care Partnership. North Ayrshire continues to be very successful and a key to this, as is the young people's involvement throughout the process.

Groups applied for money to deliver against themes, that were decided by young people, as part of their Youth Participation and Citizenship Strategy – 2021-2025.

Well over 100 groups applied this year via our digital platform which provided more scope for young people to be creative with their applications including the ability to submit video applications. All the applications were then reviewed by young people and those that met the criteria were voted on by young people aged 8-25 years.

Voting had to be suspended last minute due to an issue relating to the Young Scot Voting Platform. However, all eligible Youth PB bids in Arran, North Coast, Irvine, Kilwinning and Garnock Valley will be awarded funds this year. Therefore, no further voting needs to take place in these localities.

In the Three towns locality voting will require to go ahead and to ensure these votes are recorded accurately and are fully transparent, the voting process will restart completely and be done by taking paper voting ballots into all schools and communities across the Three Towns.

Results will be announced on Monday 11th December and all successful applicants will be informed shortly after.

North Ayrshire Youth Conference

Held at Ardeer Youth and Community Centre and attended by over 50 young people, the action-packed day was the finale of National Youth Work Week. This offered a chance for the team's latest intake of Youth Work Modern Apprentices, and our current MAs who will be complete their qualification in March 2024.

The team used the opportunity to run four MA-led workshops with the following themes:

- Building confidence through youth work
- The dangers of vaping
- Embracing positive femininity/masculinity
- No knives better lives

Depute Headteacher, Mr Neil from Greenwood Academy said: "Thank you to the pupils from Kilwinning, Ardrossan, Lockhart, Irvine Royal and of course our talented and engaged pupils representing greenwood, who gave it their all."

"The young people were particularly moved by the No Knives Better Lives Workshop and the worrying hidden dangerous of vaping – learning first-hand from Youth Services' team of Modern Apprentices who really did their research and thought out of the box to create a series of memorable workshops. Another impactful session was the 'building confidence' workshop where young people walked the plank (of wood on the floor) while immersing themselves in another world via Virtual Reality."

"Although a little scary and disorientating, for some of the more introverted students on the day, it was inspiring to see how the youth workers encouraged everyone to come out of their comfort zone to overcome their fears, gain confidence and try it out."

"Very proud of everyone, thank you to Youth Services for brilliant end to Youth Work Week 2023! We will now take the learning and report back to our Pupils Parliament and Youth Council to further embed and increase awareness on the important issues discussed that are most pertinent for young people."

Youth Work Week has now come to an end, but this won't stop Youth Services continue to share exciting updates via social media as youth work has something for everyone and has the power to really change lives.

Primary Seven Youth Council

Taking place in September at Ardeer Community Centre, primary 7 pupils from Skelmorlie, St Palladius, Glebe Primary, Springside Primary, St Mark's Primary and Lawthorn Primary took the chance to meet with their peers and take part in a series of interactive workshops. 140 pupils were in attendance to learn new skills and find out more about #youthparticipation in North Ayrshire.

The young people shared their views through a series of interactive workshops with the themes of:

A Young Persons Edit of the Council Plan - The Council plan has been published but we want to work with the young people to create a plan on a page that brings the plan to life in a youth friendly way.

Peer Pressure and Positive Thinking - An interactive workshop that focusses on peer pressure and how to handle these situations.

Know your Rights (Pupil voice) - Focussing on young peoples rights and how much young people know and what they mean. Discussing the role of duty bearers and how they can help uphold these rights if a young person is not able to do this.

A Spotlight on Climate Change - Pupils discussed their role within the Climate Change emergency and how small steps can make impactful change in their local community.

The interactive workshops were a good opportunity for the young people to meet with peers from other schools and have the chance to share what they liked about school life and the local facilities near them. It also focused on their lived experience of the areas of improvement required and the obstacles they and their families face amidst the Cost-of-Living crisis. This information will now be reported back the Council's leadership team so that the knowledge gained can contribute towards, and shape, specific policies and strategies related to children and young people, so that any necessary actions can be progressed.

Awareness is currently being raised among North Ayrshire Council staff to ensure that everyone understands their ongoing responsibility to protect the rights of our children and young people. The Council follows and respects The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC) to ensure that all children's rights are respected and that they are free to learn, play and develop. North Ayrshire's long-standing key mechanisms for listening to the voices of our young people, the Primary Youth Council was formed last year to amplify the voice of primary school aged pupils.

National Youth Work Week

North Ayrshire celebrated the power of youth work this November – an annual awareness campaign supported by YouthLink Scotland.

From the 6th November with a focus on #InvestInYouthWork and #YouthWorkMatters, the CLD Team created a week of locality based events, case study spotlights for social media and North Ayrshire wide events showcasing work focussing on the seven priorities within the CLD Plan.

MSYP for Cunninghame North, Mais Al Diri, whose two-year term is now nearing its end, reflected: “With clubs, events and the usual weekly running of youth clubs happening across our six localities, Youth Work Week ended with on a high with the impactful energy of the North Ayrshire Youth Conference.”

Councillor Alan Hill, Cabinet Member for Islands and Communities added: “From youth sports clubs and dance groups, to youth-focused projects with a focus on mental health and local climate action projects, there’s a host of incredible youth initiatives on our doorsteps and investing in the power of youth work continues to be a key focus for us a child-centred and youth-led local authority.

“Investing community funding into local youth projects is crucial, especially as we approach another winter where so many people are still struggling due to the Cost-of-Living crisis.

“Stay tuned in the coming weeks when our Youth Participatory Budgeting and Scottish Youth Parliament voting will resume and eight-to-25 year old’s will be encouraged to have their say on who should represent them and where community youth funding should be best spent.”

“Youth Work Week has now come to an end, but this won’t stop Youth Services continuing to share exciting updates via social media as youth work has something for everyone and has the power to really change lives.”

Joint Youth Forum

Our Joint Youth Forum, the meeting took place at Redburn Community Centre, giving young people aged between 12-25 the opportunity to raise issues that were important to them and share improvements that could be made to services for young people.

Supported by Community Learning and Development workers representing each locality in North Ayrshire, North Ayrshire's network of youth forums are a great way for those aged 12-25 to get involved in #youthparticipation.

Councillor Chloe Robertson, said: "It was fantastic to have such a great turn-out with over 50 young people attending our first Joint Youth Forum meeting of 2023."

"Lots of important matters were discussed including Democracy Matters, the Local Outcome Improvement Plan and a young persons version of the Council Plan."

"The forum was also a fantastic opportunity to reflect upon all the fantastic work happening in Youth Services to build a North Ayrshire that is fair and equal for all young people and their families, where no one is left behind."

Put simply, a youth forum is a place where young people have the chance to make their voices heard, where opinions will be taken on board and then used to inform local decision-making.

North Ayrshire Council has six youth forums operating weekly across each of our localities. The forums are the sounding board to the Council's Administration and Chief Executive on issues that matter most to young people.

The members also to help run local activities such as breakfast clubs, youth film night's and discos.

North Ayrshire's 60 youth forum members involved were also recently incremental in the latest round of Youth Participatory Budgeting as they rolled-up their sleeves to review the all PB applications ahead of the live vote.

Logan Gilmour, MSYP, was a panel member at the event. He said: "Youth Forums are fantastic way for young people to meet new people, gain confidence and learn new skills such as problem-solving, minute-taking, networking and organising events."

"This weekend's meeting was a vital opportunity for the young people involved to express their views and get answers to questions they wanted to ask."

"The young people also presented their plans for the year ahead and spoke with passion and determination about the many ideas they have to improve the health and wellbeing of young people throughout the region, combat climate change and make their communities better for all."

Young people also shared updates on exciting new initiatives and events happening in their localities including litter campaigns, breakfast clubs, swap shops and more.

Councillor Alan Hill, Cabinet Member for Islands and Communities added: "Thank you to everyone who came along to the first Joint Youth Forum of 2023."

"Providing support and a platform for the important work of the youth forum is just one of the many ways the Council is committed to ensuring that young people can step up and speak out to make a difference in North Ayrshire."

"I am proud to live in a North Ayrshire with so many passionate young people, who are proud to represent their peers and amplify their point of view. We care deeply about what matters to young people and those in attendance discussed a whole variety of issues which will now be reported back to our Leadership team as we work on updating our Youth Strategy action plan for the months ahead."

Climate Change Ambassadors

Our group of ambassadors now have an additional 4 members that have joined, the 16 young people continue to work on a range of activities, opportunities, signposting and events around climate change and sustainability.

Passionate about climate change, the team have been working in schools and collaborating with community groups as well as volunteering with local environmental groups to raise awareness of biodiversity, carbon emissions and other climate issues where young people can do their own part to make a difference.

And over the last two years, they have been at the forefront of helping the Council to deliver a series of biodiversity awareness sessions to schools and other young people – an important part of the job, contributing not only to the Council's Youth Participation Strategy but also supporting the Council's ambitious target of having net-free carbon emissions by 2030.

The group continue to work to create a Climate Change Time Capsule, along with tree planting. The aim is to include items to look back on in 20 years on to see how much change young people have been able to achieve in relation to green initiatives, climate change and sustainability in North Ayrshire.

With funding they received from Scottish Government they are working in partnership with the Mental Health Ambassadors and Kilwinning Community Gardens and have funded 20 trees and protectors to be planted within the community garden with a time capsule which is reflective of young peoples wellbeing and their hopes and aspirations for the future. This even will take place on December of this year.

All ambassadors took part in the Joint Cabinet where they input their views on the various topics.

The group continues to meet fortnightly.

Youth Work Modern Apprenticeship Programme

At the beginning of September, we received notification of an upcoming HMle visit taking place for our Modern Apprentices in September. The visit with the inspector and a range of apprentices from both our senior and new candidates, allowed them to see their growth and development over the course of their qualification.

Discussions took place with the MA's before the visit to ensure they were able to recognise the effect they have on service delivery, support received and opportunities provided discussed with candidates regarding the support they receive in relation to their qualification and leadership opportunities provided to them throughout the apprenticeship.

It was evident our more experienced MA's had an excellent understanding of what they do and why they do it. It was clear that our MA's are provided leadership opportunities when left in charge of planning and delivering large events such as our Joint Cabinets, youth council and youth conferences. The MA's were fantastic when responding to all questions offering lots of information and real life examples of their experience.

Soon after the visit took place some feedback was provided by the inspectors, overall, the feedback was positive however the Modern Apprenticeship programme was identified as 'practice worth sharing more widely' which we were delighted to receive. The full report was provided a couple of weeks later containing the following comments:

"The MA programme run by North Ayrshire CLD service has a significant impact on the young people who participate, the learners and communities they support as apprentices, and on the CLD service. Apprentices contribute to and run a wide range of CLD programmes across the local authority. They are key to the development of young people's empowerment and involvement in influencing decisions. They are instrumental in running the Joint Cabinets between young people and elected members. Young people on the programme gain a wide range of skills and gain confidence. Whilst the staff provide clear leadership and support to the apprentices, the apprentices themselves also influence the CLD service. The input from MAs is helping the service be innovative and remain responsive to learners' changing needs, especially for children and young people."

A case study has now being created for HMle to share this with other organisations and services. We will be recruiting our new intake of MAs in April 2024.

Kindness Mural Consultation

Working with the Bee You Ambassadors group, we had many discussions around what issues young people in their local communities and how they could use their training to benefit these young people. Through these discussions it was recognised that some work around suicide prevention had to be prioritised. Throughout North Ayrshire the statistics for youth suicides were particularly high throughout North Ayrshire. They felt a project highlighting this could give young people local signposting/ support services, would address the matter head on in a proactive way. The Kindness Mural Consultation has been collaboratively developed with Project Delivery Officer developed the project alongside the Bee You Ambassadors, Community Partners and Locality Staff.

From March 2023 to August 2023 the consultation was live and pushed via various channels of engagement methods as earlier mentioned. 521 people had completed the survey wither that be as an individual as a group with the findings/ priorities being:

Kilwinning Locality

The first kindness project is taking place in Kilwinning linking in the time capsule and tree planting project at Kilwinning Community Gardens. Working in partnership with Eglington Rangers Service, Kilwinning Community Gardens, Climate Change Ambassadors and Bee You Ambassadors.

Irvine Locality

Irvine Youth Forum in partnership with Greenwood Academy participated in the kindness mural project. Within this session young people looked at how environments can shape individuals and co designed a kindness mural for the Irvine Locality.

Garnock Valley Locality

Working in partnership with Garnock Valley Locality Team and Garnock Valley Youth Forum with the creation of a graffiti style mural with direct links to community mapping for mental health and wellbeing. Garnock Valley locality have carried out session around the creation if the Mural in the Garnock Valley as well as collaborating with the graffiti artist and Dalry Community Gardens. This will be showcased on the 1st of December. Below you can see their initial design:

Mental Health Toolkit Refresh

The Mental Health Toolkit was launched in North Ayrshire in 2017 created by NAC Youth Services, local MSYP Courtney Gemmell and national mental health organisations to support teachers, youth workers and young people to become more informed on mental health. generally. Project Delivery Officer hopes that by refreshing this resource it would challenge the stigma surrounding mental health within schools and the wider community. The original toolkit was split into three key areas: information, signposting and support. Interactive workshops Distraction tools. Project Delivery Officer lead on a consultation phase, planning and reshaping of new mental health toolkit which will be used within the local community.

Throughout the process Project delivery officer consulted and engaged with sample groups of young people in events and groups like the Joint Youth Forum, Youth Council , Primary 7's, Young Adult Carers, Equalities Forum, Garnock Valley Youth Forum, Bee You Ambassadors and Modern Apprentices as well as online consultation. This was done to gather views in the hope to refresh such a resource, updating the workshops, information, and signposting.

These focus groups identified that the toolkit is now outdated and as such needs to be refreshed. Through consultation with young people, we will create this through a youth led approach. Working collectively with the steering group information will be relevant and engaging to both partners using this toolkit to work with young people.

Next steps, is for an person meeting/ developmental day to look at a partnership approach with young people and professionals to identify and create content in December 2023. Professionals will be identified to work on specific content creation in relation to themes that will be covered.

Mini Ambassadors Programme – Bounce Back Peer Support Programme – St Lukes Primary

The Mini Ambassador programme focusses on mental health and wellbeing delivered by North Ayrshire Bee You Mental Health Ambassadors, delivering to primary 6/7 young people and becoming mini bee you ambassadors for their primary school. It ensures clear, current reliable information is integrated into hour long workshops that is easily delivered and understood with 'the by young people, for young people' with our secondary Bee You Ambassadors young people to confidently able to deliver the programme.

The 6 part programme focusses on these young people becoming Bee You Ambassadors for their primary school, we help support the young people moving forward in their new roles. The topics covered in these sessions include What is Mental Health, Resilience, Social Networks, Friendships, Making Decisions and Self Care.

This This programme has most recently been delivered to St Lukes Primary School in Kilwinning to a class of Primary 7 pupils. The programme allows the Bee You Ambassadors, who are all aged between 16 and 21, the chance to share the valuable information they have learned throughout their journey with these young people. The programme supported all 27 of the St Lukes pupils involved in learning these workshops with their own resilience through topics that they are currently experiencing within primary school. The Ambassadors all have completed Mental Health First Aid and/or the Mental Health UKs Your Resilience programme, in delivering what they have learned only reaffirms the learning that these young people have already had further increasing their resilience and confidence.

"This programme has opened up conversations we liked the play-doh lesson because it taught us resilience. When they came along and squished our play-doh we could have given up and stop trying but they taught us to try again." Age 11

"The Bounce Back Programme was delivered very effectively within St Luke's Primary School by Vicki and her team. The staff were friendly, considerate and quickly built relationships with all children. These relationships and the atmosphere they created within the classroom were core to the success of the programme. This allowed pupils to take charge of the learning experiences. Each week they covered an extremely important and essential area of mental, social and emotional health. The lessons were well structured to include a variety of activities and were also very well resourced. All children looked forward to the Bounce Back Programme each week and are keen to now permeate the knowledge and skills they have developed throughout the school as trained Well-being Ambassadors." Miss Ness

Your Resilience – Irvine Royal Academy

Your Resilience supports young people's mental health resilience. The education programme is focused on building resilience through life's transitions in 14–20-year-olds, equipping them with the tools and resources to manage their mental health now and in the future.

The programme is run weekly in Irvine Royal Academy with current 6th year pupils of a already established school mental health ambassador status. Sessions are 1–2-hours covering Resilience, Exam Pressure, Friendships/Decision Making, Social Pressures, Managing Studies and Juggling Time. Along with open conversation work through the appropriate workbook for groups age ensuring the group understand the tasks and the tool kits provided to help them manage their own life scenarios and support their Mental Health and Wellbeing.

At the end of the completed sessions and workbooks the young people have a opportunity to give feedback, they will then receive their certificate.

On completion the group have asked for a session to further brainstorm and information on how we can support their ideas moving forward as not only ambassadors for their school but ambassadors for their community. This session will be happening in the coming weeks with the hope of creating a lasting support and partnership for these senior pupils to further support the younger pupils of the school.

In learning and delivering this programme with the hope to reach as many young people as possible between the ages of 14–20 within North Ayrshire helping them increase their knowledge and tools to build resilience whilst promote the culture of open conversation about Mental Health.

"Thank you Vicki Andrew and her team for the work they are doing with some of our Irvine Royal Mental Health Ambassadors, the group are really enjoying the sessions and working with the Team" Mrs Marwick

Community Base Adult Learning Gaelic Provision

Thirteen weekly ongoing Gaelic language classes at various levels continue to be delivered face to face and virtually in North Ayrshire:

Level 3/4 - Irvine

Level 4 - Three Towns

Level 3/4 - Three Towns

Level 3/4 - Three Towns

Level 4/5 - Three Towns

2 x level 1/2 - Online

Level 2 - Online

Level 4 - Online

once a moth conversation (all levels) - Arran

As part of Adult Learners Week an Introduction to NAC Gaelic classes event was held in Arran Library on Sat 02 September with information for those interested in taking part in Gaelic classes across North Ayrshire. This resulted in increased numbers of learners wanting access to classes and new online classes having to be formed to meet demand.

Arran Geopark Landscape Walks

In partnership with Arran Access Trust two NAC Gaelic language students had recently qualified as Mountain Leaders and wanted to use their new skills to take people out on guided walks. They wanted to add to this by using the Gaelic they had to chat about place names. With degrees in geology they were already involved with Arran Geopark, and felt that a Gaelic landscape walk would be in keeping with Geopark themes around promoting and educating people about natural and cultural heritage. The walks cover various areas and terrains on Arran from a Gaelic perspective, looking at local history, geography, industry, place names and landscape.

Gaelic

Support to Gaelic Community groups/organisations

Suas Leis a' Ghàidhlig held their AGM in November and have adopted an updated constitution that will allow them to continue their Gaelic journey with trips and events over the coming months being planned.

Largs Gaelic choir continue on their Gaelic journey where they competed in the national Mod in Paisley in October.

Fèis Arainn was one of this year's recipients of the Coop Community Fund, events delivered included fiddlers and other musicians performing both at the Coop and around the island shops as part of the Shop Arran weekend with associated press coverage, also the Trad band will be taking part in a Christmas concert on 21/12/23.

The Fèis Arainn Junior shinty club continues to grow and the club is now attracting good numbers of around 15 in weekly sessions with mainland tutor. In addition an inter-primary schools tournament was held in September and attracted 55 participants. And the club has also held a parent and carer taster session in October.

Fèis Arainn was approached by a new resident on the island, who participates regularly in the Mòd as a member of the Govan Gaelic choir, who is eager to establish an Arran Gaelic choir.

Fèis Arainn and North Ayrshire Community Learning and Development have supported this request which has resulted in a good deal of interest. A meeting was held on 3rd November to discuss future steps involved in forming a choir. First rehearsals began on 14/11/23 with a view to performing in a Christmas event.

Isle of Arran Music School continues with weekly provision for school aged children in clàrsach, pipes and drums.

The band participated in several national events and competitions as well as a local concert on Arran on 28/10/23. Two of the drummers took part in the World Solo Drumming Championships in Glasgow and two pipers in the Caledonian Festival of Junior Piping.

One clàrsach player won a silver medal in the recent Mòd in Paisley.

New Scots

The film making club

This is a peer led project for ages 15+ that benefited from funding from TACT. They met once a week in Ardrossan youth hut to write and create a film, they have filmed on location and are now editing their film at the Media Hub in West Kilbride. Young Ukrainians, Scots and Syrians have all been involved in acting and learning skills in filming, sound production and editing.

The film will be shown at the Harbour Arts Centre in January 2024.

Ocean Youth Trust

In October 6 young New Scots from North Ayrshire, Ukrainian and Syrian, had the opportunity to join with other New Scots from Argyll and Bute Council to undertake a voyage with the Ocean Youth Trust. They were also given a team building activity residential in Ardentinnny. The team received a qualification for completing their voyage and can now volunteer with the OYT who will take them through their sailing levels.

New Scots

Judo club for New Scots with Loretta Doyle Judo Foundation

Judo lessons have progressed and are now offering weekly lessons in partnership with the foundation and Irvine Judo Club. Interest has been keen, with 34 children and 4 adults signing up.

All have been learning to speak Japanese within lessons(in the context of Judo). Learning the fundamental principles of judo : respect, courtesy, honesty, modesty, self-control, courage and honour.

All lessons, gradings, kit, insurances are provided free by the charity which enables attendance given families are low income and/or benefit based. Use of the local facility is developing more Community Presence within Irvine town.

There are plans a celebratory event after the grading in February.

The New Scots Team, in partnership with Employability and CEIS developed an Information session for a Young Male Syrian Adult Programme in the Garnock Valley.

The aim is to increase engagement and long term futures. The information event has taken place, attracting 6 young men who are embarking on a programme to enhance their training and skills with a view to further learning and employment in the future.

New Scots

New Scots Children's Sports club

This is supported by Active schools and Young Sports leaders and runs once per week at Garnock Community Campus.

Most weeks, an average of 6-12 (from a group of 17) children attend. They continue to be introduced to a variety of sports and skills, which included: Archery, football, netball, team games, parachute games, boules and races. This offers the children varied physical activity and development of motor skills, promoting health and well-being. It is based locally to enhance accessibility, regular attendance and community presence. Children learn about team work, collaborative play and taking turns.

New Scots Art Club Garnock Valley

A local artist is running a 7 week art class in Bridgend Community Centre. This has developed from the Summer Art class to include a wider age range from 7 years plus, Mums can attend too!

A variety of mediums/styles are being used including pen and line drawing, colour mixing/shading, working with acrylics and watercolours, making jewellery, bags and pencil cases. Expression through these arts is enhancing mental well-being and improving skills. Developing friendships and confidence, continuing to increase English speaking skills.

New Scots

Nova Scotias boys group

Members of the Nova Scotias boys group have returned to their weekly football at the Circuit after a summer break. 23 boys representing 7 nationalities have attended football since September. Meetings have been held with Street Soccer Scotland with plans to secure a sustainable future for the team.

Nova Scotias activities have also included 2 Boxing training sessions in Ardrossan in September to introduce boys to the mainstream provision there.

6 Nova Scotias Youth Club members enjoyed a trip to Largs Viking Festival to learn about the history of the area. Regular fortnightly youth club meetings at Irvine Legacy Youth Hub resume on a new time and day, fortnightly on Saturdays from November, where they take part in Youth Achievement awards and will soon complete their Bronze. Youth Club members will also volunteer at events for younger children with the aim to begin their Silver awards.

Gardening Construction group

This group meets weekly at the Three Towns Growers in Ardrossan. The group have built decking and are now completing the construction of a nature hide for the pond area of the community garden.

This group has been beneficial to our new Scots supporting them with resettlement and their conversational English.

Dress making group

This women's group meet twice a week in the Argyle centre in Saltcoats. Their aim is to make occasion dresses for their daughters. They learn how to use pattern, measure, cut and sew using a variety of materials. The group was organised with the help of volunteer Layan Yousef and is tutored by volunteer Mariam Aranoush, a Ukrainain New Scot of Nigerian nationality. It is attended by Ukrainain, Syrian and Afghan ladies.

New Scots

Spike Wheat Scots

Spike Wheat Scots recently hosted two community barbecues in Eglinton park park, one for men and one for women. Guests enjoyed Syrian food and the gatherings provided a warm and inviting space for individuals from diverse backgrounds, including Ukrainian and Scots, fostering a sense of community and connection

In collaboration with the North Ayrshire Carer's Centre, the group's drop-in sessions were attended by dedicated support workers, resulting in significant support for 11 families with caregiving responsibilities. Notably, these families were successful in securing much-needed funding

Their project with Outside the Box continues to develop with the group facilitating a session with KA Leisure to address the specific needs of BAME women focusing on supporting their participation in sports and community activities. The group also hosted New Scots from Clydebank at a session in Whitehurstpark community centre.

New Scots

Ukrainian Community in North Ayrshire Group

The Ukrainian group has initiated a Scottish culture and history club, cultivating cross-cultural understanding and appreciation. One notable experience was a captivating walking tour of Dalry, led by author John Hodgart, where the group delved into the intriguing history of Bessie Dunlop and Scotland's complex narrative surrounding "witches." This immersive exploration provided a unique lens into the rich cultural tapestry of Scotland. Additionally, the group further enriched their cultural journey with a tour of Kilwinning Abbey, conducted in collaboration with Kilwinning Heritage Centre. These diverse experiences not only contribute to language learning but also foster a deeper understanding and appreciation of Scottish heritage within the Ukrainian community, showcasing the positive impact of cultural initiatives.

Furthermore, in collaboration with John's Garnock Valley Traditional Music group, the group hosted a lively Scottish music night in Saltcoats. The event not only showcased the vibrant musical traditions but also marked the beginning of a promising partnership. Future plans include organising an event where members of the Ukrainian community will actively participate and play alongside the Garnock Valley Traditional Music group, further strengthening the cultural exchange and camaraderie between the two communities.

New Scots

Bourtree Belles

The new weekly Bourtree Belles women's group based at Towerlands Community Centre has started very well. In total 14 women have attended including 9 New Scots. To date the group has decorated pots and planted herbs and has agreed a schedule of activities including sewing, candle making, tissue box decorating and other relaxing social activities. The group also gives women a welcome chance to chat about their lives and any issues facing them. The group has also agreed forthcoming trips to charity shops for sewing materials, to Kilwinning College Hair and Beauty for hair cuts, and Dalgarnen Mill.

In October half term the women elected to have a family activity and a drum and music workshop by Gruvi Beatz attracted 7 New Scots families with 22 children.

Unity Community Group

In September the new Unity Community group started in partnership with Kilwinning Locality Team at Nethermain Centre, and over 5 pilot weeks attracted 12 people including Scots and New Scots from Ukraine, Syria and Afghanistan. The group aims to facilitate community sharing and understanding of different cultures and focused each week on cultural topics agreed by the group, with participants encouraged to bring items and information to discuss.

The Multiply Project

The Multiply team have been promoting and our project across various partnership events including the No-one Left Behind Conference in Irvine.

Our staff attend the weekly Take Time Families group at Kilwinning Library to offer support to parents/carers - the group runs from 3:30-4:45 every Wednesday afternoon.

They have been working with CHAP to support delivery to primary 7 parents' which introduces young people to the world of everyday finance and budgeting. The 'Ducks in a Row' exercise gives young people a fun insight into the cost of adult life - running a home, paying bills etc. This game aims to make young people more aware of the issues surrounding finances. This promotes family learning as well as breaking down potential barriers to parents/carers accessing our numeracy/literacy supports.

In October and November the Multiply team have been working with our colleagues in Connected Communities on the recruitment and training of volunteers for our adult learning projects. We have hosted a recruitment event in Saltcoats Town Hall and in Irvine Bridgegate and currently planning another similar event at Ayrshire College at the start of 2024.

Our weekly numeracy group at Trindlemoss Day Centre is attended by between 6-8 adult learners with Additional Support Needs. During our sessions we develop skills in numeracy, cash handling, general confidence with numbers.

Through playing games like darts and cards we are able to introduce numbers and numeracy in a fun and engaging style. As the learners progress we hope to offer SQA approved units in order to give the learners certification and tangible outcomes for their learning.

The Multiply team were tasked with creating, planning, and facilitating a training day for the full Community Learning and Development service on October 27th. The emphasis was on fun, inclusivity, and enjoyment but also to present and demonstrate the innovative numeracy resources and sessions that could be delivered to any group.

Multiply most recently attended The Mount launch event in Townend, Dregghorn to offer adult learners numeracy support and meet with partners across the service and beyond.

we can offer support for numeracy in groups or 1:1 support - which offer help with:

- everyday maths,
- homework,
- qualifications,
- finances
- budgeting

Participatory Budgeting

Current PB updates:

- In this round of PB, the funding is split into three different categories – Youth PB, Locality PB and funding from the UK Shared Prosperity Fund, with a sum of £198,377 overall
- Locality & UKSPF results will be announced on Monday 20th November.

Participatory Budgeting 23/24

Community empowerment is key to PB and through engagement with local groups and residents we will continue to improve the PB process.

Some key points:

Following the end of the 2022/23 PB process, a review was undertaken, which included collating the feedback gathered from a range of stakeholders while the round was live, and hosting an online Community Engagement Event for previous steering group members to help shape the 2023 round.

- Three topics were taken to the engagement session for discussion:
 - Criteria
 - Themes
 - Launch events

There were some great suggestions from the participants about the potential to use the events to do more than just 'PB'. Some ideas included promoting the event as a networking opportunity; opening the event to local businesses; bringing in local services who could provide wraparound support to the kinds of groups attending; and creating space for promotion of existing groups and projects and the opportunities to get involved.

ParticipatoryBudgeting@north-ayrshire.gov.uk

- Co-production of the event with our stakeholders meant, we were able to produce an event that people actually wanted
- Pre launch events were held across 6 localities during August and September - each event allowed us to have 1:1 discussions with attendees and digital support for our online platform, this was also an opportunity for prospective applicants to ask questions about their projects and get advice and guidance from staff, as well as network with other local organisations who might be potential UK Shared Prosperity Fund partners.
- Our digital platform hosting PB has allowed us to keep the process centralised and has been an interactive space where applicants could upload written or video applications and promote their projects with those viewing/voting able to comment and support what is going on in their localities. From a total of 238 applications, only 3 were submitted using the paper form option.
- PB continues to be a hybrid process and we have had great support from our library team to enable people to apply and vote in person and in addition PB champions across the localities have been a continued support to the groups they work with.

Results are in!

We are excited to announce that 101 community groups and local organisations have been successful in their bids for the most recent round of PB. The allocated funding will be shared between projects throughout all of the six North Ayrshire localities and these broadly cover the themes of: improving local life and wellbeing, helping residents during the Cost-of-Living crisis, connecting people in local communities, promoting positive mental health and wellbeing, tackling climate change and promoting healthy and active communities. These projects are set to make a real difference for everyone involved!

Community Asset Transfer

We will support our community groups in their ambitions to own and lease assets via our Community Asset Transfer Policy.

The Community Asset team continues to work alongside TACT's Community Asset Transfer Development Worker, who provides assistance and support to community groups exploring or looking for advice on taking on an asset within their communities. Some of the support provided includes governance; pros and cons of asset transfer; liaising with DTAS on particular issues such as what it means for a group who are interested in an asset within the Housing Revenue Account (HRA) amongst many other

The Community Asset Team have been ensuring that all paperwork that is uploaded to the website is accessible for all and we continue to work on improving the asset transfer process.

Our community development team along with our partners from TACT, Green Health Partnership, HSCP and Ayrshire College, have supported over 200 adults to develop their knowledge and skills through opportunities offered via our 'Leadership Collective'. This includes; Naloxone training, committee skills training, REHIS, First aid, Mental Health first aid, trauma awareness training, bike maintenance skills, Canny cooker training, funding fares and funding workshops

Food Insecurities

The Fairer Food Network

Currently 14 food larders across North Ayrshire supporting over 3000 households with a dignified food provision.

The fourth quarterly payment has been made to all larders under the revised funding model. Weekly footfall will be monitored and reported on quarterly, and that figure will dictate the payment for the next quarter. Larders with up to 30 households per week will receive £1000 per quarter. There after, it will be a cost per head calculation of the remaining funding pot. This model will be reviewed at the December meeting after 2 payments have been received.

The quarterly NAFF meeting was held on 11 September in Fullarton Hub and was chaired by Donna Fitzpatrick. The group heard from The 1st Alliance Credit Union and NHS Dietetics. EW has recipe sheets from dietetics to copy and distribute to the larders.

There has been ongoing support and visits to the larders and a members survey is currently underway.

- The Tap End Larder, Stevenston was supported to arrange for quotes for wifi and digital support and an application was submitted to the Digital Access Fund which has been approved and is subject to two committee members attending cyber security training. Dawn Hogg, the Anti Poverty Development Manager has taken up post with the association. She has negotiated a longer working week with a shorter contract to make it financially viable. Due to the lack of wifi in the building, arrangements have been made for her to be based within St Johns some of the time.
- Cranberry Moss is currently in a challenging financial situation at present and suggestions were offered to reduce the basket value and decrease the gap between funding and basket value in the larder.
- Ardrossan South has been having a challenging time with a particular member who has since been barred. The larder does not feel it can support members who choose to spend the "savings" on drugs, alcohol or foreign holidays. This will be added to the November agenda of the network meeting.
- The 'Side Larder, Springside, has received a community benefit donation from McConnechie's of approx £270 of food.

Events

Beith Preparing for Winter Event in the Community Centre on 29 September. Engagement with approx 50 people. The stall distributed approx. 70 packs of tomatoes to local residents along with information on food larders, money matters and energy support.

3 Towns Over 50's information event in Ardeer Community Centre on 19 October. Engagement with approx. 20 people. Recipe cards for celery soup were distributed along with packs of celery. A love it or hate it item.

Information on food larders, money matters and energy support was also provided.

Sustainable Food Places

Ongoing participation in Sustainable Food Places discussions between North Ayrshire, Ecosavvy and Nourish to identify a route forward for a project in North Ayrshire and the impact of the Good Food Nation Act coming into play this year.

North Ayrshire Food Forum

The North Ayrshire Food Forum had its second meeting on 9 October. The members heard from Arran on the very successful Food and Drink Festival. The Teams Channel is now established and work is underway to develop a terms of reference for the group.

Training

The current offer is for Mental Health Awareness – A Practical Approach and an in person session is scheduled for Nov.

The outstanding Naloxone Kits have now been received and will be distributed to the individuals who attended the training back in April 23.

Other news...

Friends of Redburn Community Group received £2500 support from the Fairer Food Fund. This fund will be used to purchase equipment for the kitchen to allow for development of the lunch clubs, and food for the St Andrews Day Event in November 23.

Challenge Poverty Week focussed on food on 9 October and the Friends of Redburn invited over 70 of the elected members, chief officers and other officials. On the day, 20 people attended and as well as getting lunch, they heard about the work that is ongoing across the authority to support people with food. The event was supported by young people from two secondary schools who provided first class waiter service. The group received food from the “customers” as well as £188 in cash donations.

The Older Peoples Voice & Engagement Hubs

Older People's Voice Network

Your Voice. Your Agenda. You Decide!

The Older Peoples Voice Conference

Consultations regarding current platforms and issues facing older people completed in NC, 3towns, Irvine, and GV (5 consultations) and findings broken down and summarised.

Mapping completed of current provision; findings submitted to locality teams for feedback.

Steps forward are taking place in relation to older people's voices being heard through a participation and engagement structure by holding an older peoples conference on November 22nd at Saltcoats Townhall where older people will have the opportunity to feedback on the structure presented.

Transport will be in place with the aim to get as many people from each locality in attendance as possible.

The conference will also provide education around scams, intergenerational work, older peoples stories of trying to get their voices heard, lunch, and a raffle and marketing stalls where older people can talk directly to services which are there for their support.

The Older Peoples Voice & Engagement Hubs

Engagement Hubs

The engagement hubs aim to provide a needs-based programme of activities which were set out by initial consultations with residents and community members.

The provision is aimed at decreasing social isolation as well as improve physical and mental health.

At present there are 28 activities running across 4 hubs weekly featuring:

Chair exercise classes, chair dance classes, bingo, quizzes, tai chi, MS support groups, seniors forums, mental wellness support groups, Community Councils, entertainment committees, digital support groups, lunch clubs, live entertainment, trips, ESOL groups, over 50s discovery award groups, coffee mornings, football reminiscence groups, tea and a blether sessions and sewing groups.

Engagement Hub Committees

Four of the Hubs committees in Dalry, Irvine, Three Towns and Garnock Valley have received support to apply for PB funding and one committee to apply for further funding from the Robertson Trust's Wee Grants Scheme. Further support has been provided to bridge the digital gap in terms of voting.

Yes Your Entire Self

Wellness Wednesday is run weekly at Cumbræ Gardens Community Engagement Hub in Largs. The day started off slow but has steadily built numbers. The group has developed to the point they now have a waiting list seeing as much as 30 people taking part each week.

The group continues to receive positive engagement and has been arranging trips which as a result have saw many socially isolated people getting out of their homes and making new friends.
